Talcum Powder

Keeping cool during a beat

Keeping cool during a beat wave is not much of a problem for George, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Pappas, 1319 Twenty-first street northwest. After shedding most of his ciothing, he sprinkles his body with talcum powder, with pleasing effects, judging from his satisfied expression.

TRINIDAD CENTER George Adores BOYS' CLUB OPENS SEASON ON OCT. 6

Northeast Organization To Have New Athletic Equipment.

The Boys' Club of the Trinidad Community Center, which meets at the Ludlow School, will open for its winter season October 6.

Nearly seventy-five boys in the vicinity of the school are anxiously awaiting the day. For they will have brand-new equipment to add to the excitement of their games. They will find boxing gloves, punching bags, volley balls and footballs all new for the season. A football team will be organized, and possibly there will be several teams. As the win-ter comes on, basketball teams will

Last year the club had an attendance of from fifty to seventy-five boys and it is expected that there will be many more this year. They are disappointed, according to Mrs. Lily Nicholas, who manages the club, that they are allowed to use the Community Center only one night a week instead of the three nights they requested.

The Dead Sentinel.

While driving home one evening recently, about dusk, I observed a soliceman in the street some dis-ance ahead of me carrying a red lantern. Having full knowledge that he was about to place the light as a signal of langer to passing motorists, I drove cautiously in an attempt to ascertain the real reaon for the display, Presently I noticed a large brown object in full possession of the mid-die of the highway, and as I passed by saw the policeman place the lantern securely, but squarely, on the stomach of a large dray horse As I drove past on my way to work the following morning horse, and lantern perched on top were still there, "A Dead Sentinel?" Yes, but a grotesque reminder that the horse has not yet passed into oblivion, at least from the streets of Washington.—R. D. SHURE, Takens. Park.

Do the People Know? Do you know why you are asked to call for Fletcher's Castoria hen you want a child's remedy: why you must insist on Fletcher's? For years we have been explaining how the popularity of Fletcher's Castoria has brought out innumerable imitations, substitutes and counterfeits.

generations to come we appeal to the better judgment of parents to insist on having Fletcher's Castoria when in need of a child's medicine. And remember above all things that a child's medicine is made for children—a medicine prepared for grown-ups is not interchangeable. A baby's food for a baby. And a baby's medicine is just as essential for the baby. The Castoria Recipe (it's on every wrapper) has been prepared
